【授業の概要・目的】
This course provides an introduction to the field of ritual studies. Exploring the core questions of the nature and functions of rituals, we will examine different types of rituals that humans create and participate in, as well as their meaning and significance, in both secular and sacred contexts. This course will present a number of ritual genres, as well as the theories and methods used to record and study them.
【到達目標】
There are 3 main objectives for this class. First students will gain an understanding of the notion of rituals, their meanings and social functions, the scope of ritual studies, as well as an awareness of the wide array of rituals that humans participate in. Second, they will acquire a working knowledge of ritual theory and of the main categories of rituals and their structure. Third, the course will help students become more comfortable formulating thoughts and opinions on a specific topic.
