【授業の概要・目的】
In today ' s global community, how should a person conceptually prepare herself to be an effective “ intercultural ” communicator? Inconceivable even a decade ago, this era has witnessed tremendous transnational cultural flows -- of people, practices and products -- as well as local cultural complexities. Each not only encounters her own cultural intricacy, but also needs to effectively operate in culturally-complex contexts -- no matter in the cyber or physical spaces. These contexts range from the home and neighborhood; to places of work, worship and recreation; and to regions and the world. For this academic year, the guiding concept for both Intercultural Communication I and II will be “ cultural fluency. ” The two courses will be based on the second edition of my Thai book: "Light, Water and Rice Stalk: Cultural Fluency for Alterity" (2020). There are four sets of topics, the first two of which will be explored in this course and the latter two in Intercultural Communication II: Part 1. “ Cultural Fluency, ” Difference and Voice Part 2. Basic Elements of “ Cultural Fluency ” : AHA Part 3. Listen to Others, Listen to Otherness Part 4. Light, Rice Stalk and Cultural Fluency The two courses explore concepts, theories and events as well as employ sounds (melodic or not) and images (moving or otherwise) -- as pedagogical tools -- to deepen students ' understanding of effective "intercultural communication."
【到達目標】
Since these two courses are predominantly conceptual/theoretical, they aim for students to be able to develop a set of conceptual abilities to think through processes of “ intercultural communication. ” Students will, therefore, be doing a large amount of reading, discussing, and finally writing. (Note: all the readings can be accessed through PandA)

Notes: Since this course is predominantly conceptual, students will be expected to demonstrate their conceptual understanding. The quizzes ' questions will ask students to: a) define some of this course ' s key terms; b) apply those terms to analyze certain social realities in light of the course ' s overall theme -- i.e., “ cultural fluency ” . Throughout the semester, therefore, each student must ensure that s/he will adequately have a good conceptual grasp of those key terms.
