【授業の概要・目的】
This course is designed to provide graduate students with an opportunity to develop their ability and confidence when presenting field-specific content to an informed audience. Giving presentations in an academic setting, whether it is in a classroom, laboratory context, or at a conference, has become increasingly necessary for students at the graduate level. Course content extends from how to greet the audience to how to answer audience questions.
【到達目標】
Students successfully completing this course will be able to do the following: ・ Create an appropriate presentation slideshow for a conference or a research laboratory presentation; ・ Clearly introduce and provide an overview of the talk through appropriate signposting; ・ Properly display visual aids to enhance audience understanding of research data; ・ Use posture and movement to engage the audience; ・ Use gestures, voice, and eyes to emphasize information and connect with the audience; ・ Produce a research presentation; and ・ Answer audience questions.

授業中に紹介する

【授業外学修（予習・復習）等】

Students will be asked to work on several smaller in-class talks and one larger presentation as their primary out-of-class homework assignment. This includes recording your own presentations and uploading them to Google Drive.

【その他（オフィスアワー等）】

Students will use Google Drive during presentations, with specific focus on Google Docs and Google Slides. Some computer skills are required, though most in-class work can be performed on a smartphone or a tablet. Familiarity with Google Docs and Slides is not required--only the willingness to learn the basics of these skills.
