Course number	U-LAS70 10002 SE50
Course title (and course title in English)	ILAS Seminar-E2 :Clinical and ethical issues within palliative care- the European Context（ヨーロッパにおける緩和ケア） ILAS Seminar-E2 :Clinical and ethical issues within palliative care- the European Context	Instructor's name, job title, and department of affiliation	Graduate School of Medicine Associate Professor,ANAGNOSTOU, Despoina
Group	Seminars in Liberal Arts and Sciences	Number of credits	2	Number of weekly time blocks	1
Class style	seminar (Face-to-face course)	Year/semesters	2024・First semester	Quota (Freshman)	15 (15)
Target year	Mainly 1st year students	Eligible students	For all majors	Days and periods	Tue.5
Classroom	21, Yoshida-South Campus Bldg. No. 1			Language of instruction	English
Keyword	palliative care / end of life / ethics / clinical issues / Europe

[Overview and purpose of the course]

The overall aim of the seminar is to develop understanding of the key current clinical and ethical issues in palliative care within the European context

We will use a combination of short lectures, interactive group work problem based activities and personal reflection throughout the course to address aspects of shared decision-making in palliative care, communication challenges in end of life care, ethical issues as viewed within EUROPE, holistic needs assessment and management of complex family interactions.

[Course objectives]

To understand the concepts of palliative and end of life care
To understand the different models of palliative care within Europe
To develop awareness of the different disease groups relevant to palliative care
To develop awareness of the current ethical debates within palliative care in Europe

[Course schedule and contents)]

Session 1: Introduction of the seminar and of those participating
Session 2: Definition and different approaches to palliative care/ end of life care- historical development
Session 3: Decision-making in palliative care
Session 4: Family involvement in palliative care
Session 5: Financial burden for the family in end-of-life care
Session 6: Management of chronic pain in palliative care
Session 7: Communication issues in advanced cancer
Session 8: Quality of life in palliative care
Session 9: The concept of resilience in palliative care
Session 10: Coping with terminal illness
Session 11: Informal care-giving: the untold reality palliative care
Session 12: The importance of Spirituality and spiritual care in palliative care

Continue to ILAS Seminar-E2 :Clinical and ethical issues within palliative care- the European Context（ヨーロッパにおける緩和ケア）(2)↓↓↓

ILAS Seminar-E2 :Clinical and ethical issues within palliative care- the European Context (ヨーロッパにおける緩和ケア) (2)

Session 13: Advanced care planning- current trends
Session 14: Ethical issues in palliative care
Session 15: presentations- feedback

[Course requirements]

None

[Evaluation methods and policy]

evaluation will be based on students' presentations

[Textbooks]

Instructed during class

[References, etc.]

（References, etc.）

Introduced during class
References to relevant literature will be given at each seminar

[Study outside of class (preparation and review)]

Students are required to prepare for their presentations

[Other information (office hours, etc.)]

Teacher short lectures, discussion groups, student presentations, small group works during seminar session based on an issue specified by the teacher.

Students are advised to actively participate; make comments and ask questions to generate discussions

Students should make an appointment via e-mail, in the case they need any advice.