[Overview and nurnose of the course]

[Overview and purpose of the course]

Globalization is presented as the main factor of evolution affecting the contemporary world, both in its political, economic, social, and cultural dimensions. Globalization has then to be examined as a process that entails several changes due to migration, political regional integration, unequal economic development, cultural convergence for example. This course focuses on these overall tendencies, and their various effects on developing and developed countries.

[Course objectives]

The first target of this course is to provide students with sound knowledge about the several ways globalization impact our societies. In that respect, students will study both the economic, political, social, and cultural dimensions of globalization. At the end of the course, they will have an interdisciplinary and problem-oriented approach of issues entailed by globalization.
