フランス語ⅠA（演習）F1202(2)

[Course requirements]

Refer to "Handbook of Liberal Arts and General Education Courses".

[Evaluation methods and policy]

Students will be evaluated on their oral skills during the class, based on their answers to the questions of the teacher and their involvement during class activities such as group talks in French. This participation counts as 40% of their final grade. There will be a midterm written exam (MCQ, 30 minutes) including listening comprehension and vocabulary that counts for 20% of the final grade and a final written exam (MCQ, 30 minutes) including listening comprehension and vocabulary that counts for 40% of the final grade.

A+: outstanding class participation & results for the midterm and final exam.

A : consistently good class participation & results for the midterm and final exam.

B : good general attitude, effort & results for the midterm and final exam.

C : adequate participation & results for the midterm and final exam.

D : Inadequate attendance and participation, poor results for the exams.

[Textbooks]

Centre Franco-japonais, Alliance française d'Osaka 『DIALOGUES』（第三書房）ISBN:978-4-8086-2989-2

A French-Japanese dictionary (paperback or electronic) will be necessary.

[Study outside of class (preparation and review)]

After each class, students should review the lesson that was studied during the class from their textbook or their personal notes, memorize the vocabulary and phrases (individually or as a study group), listen again to the audio tracks used during the class and practice pronunciation. It takes about 2 hours.

At the end of each class, the teacher will ask the students to read 2-3 pages from the textbook, translate and memorize new words from those pages for the next class. It takes 1 or 2 hours.

It's best to do at least 15 minutes of French (reading out loud, listening audio tracks, watching some video in French with subtitles) to make some real progress.

[Other information (office hours, etc.)]

Students are expected to arrive on time and to have completed their homework.

Students must take notes from the blackboard. Sleeping in class is not permitted : it is considered the same as being absent. Please, keep in mind that the program may be subject to change.

Students willing to visit the teacher's office should make an appointment at the end of the class.
