

Course number		G-LAS14 80004 LE44
Course title (and course title in English)		Global Social Entrepreneurship and Leadership Style Global Social Entrepreneurship and Leadership Style		Instructor's name, job title, and department of affiliation		Graduate School of Management Visiting Associate Professor,MURAI AKIKO
Group		Interdisciplinary Graduate Courses		Field(Classification)		Career Development
Language of instruction		English		Old group		Number of credits 2
Number of weekly time blocks		1		Class style		Lecture (Face-to-face course)
				Year/semesters		2024 • Second semester
Days and periods		Mon.3		Target year		Graduate students
				Eligible students		For all majors
(Students of Graduate School of Management cannot take this course as liberal arts and general education course. Please register the course with your department.)
[Overview and purpose of the course]
This year, the theme is "sustainability"as in the Sustainable Development Goal(SDGs), while addressing leadership as an innate ability of any individuals rather than relating to the positions in the organizations or roles in the society. The course is consisted of lectures, discussions among course takers per previously assigned reading or viewing materials, and live stories from the leaders in several fields in context of SDGs. Throughout the course, the course takers will express their own way of realizing the triple sustainability - economic, environmental, and social sustainability - as part of the search for their leadership style.
[Course objectives]
Students would notice their own leadership potential and style, and cultivate better understanding on how leadership matters to continue to build the economically, socially, and environmentally sustainable society.
[Course schedule and contents)]
1 . Introduction 2-5 Meaning of leadership and “ sustainability ” - Lecture, and discussion reflecting the reading and viewing assignments 6-8 SDGs game and self-assessment of “ leadership style in achieving SDGs ” 8-12 Leadership and sustainability (by relevant guest lecturers) live stories by leaders in the relevant field, and discussion 13-14.Searching your own leadership style Lecture and exercise 15 Summary and Reflection No exam
Continue to Global Social Entrepreneurship and Leadership Style(2)

Global Social Entrepreneurship and Leadership Style(2)

[Course requirements]

None

[Evaluation methods and policy]

50% class attendance and participation;
20% two short essays;
30% final paper

[Textbooks]

To be announced in advance of the course

[References, etc.]

(References, etc.)

To be announced before each class, including articles, TV and video programs and movies

[Study outside of class (preparation and review)]

To be announced as needed

[Other information (office hours, etc.)]

Individual appointments with Murai after each class and on the following day.