【授業の概要・目的】
This course provides a critical introduction to how gender shapes our per. This course will explore the various social and cultural contexts of gender through examples from the 20th/21st century Asia-Pacific region. We will draw on comparative material from other places around the globe as well.
【到達目標】
The broad goal of this course is to introduce to students to the broad diversity of gender experiences available in today ' s highly globalized societies. In particular, the course will give students an analytical framework to contextualize this gender diversity and its continual transformation over the past couple of centuries to situate their own experiences. At the end of the course, students will have increased ability to give balanced consideration to the expression of individual gendered points of view and sexual orientation in different cultural contexts.
