[授業の概要・目的]

This course is designed to provide graduate students with an opportunity to develop their ability and confidence when presenting field-specific content to an informed audience. Giving presentations in an academic setting, whether it is in a classroom, laboratory context, or at a conference, has become increasingly necessary for students at the graduate level. Course content extends from how to greet the audience to how to answer audience questions.

[到達目標]

Students successfully completing this course will be able to do the following:

- · Create an appropriate presentation slideshow for a conference or a research laboratory presentation;
- Clearly introduce and provide an overview of the talk through appropriate signposting;
- Properly display visual aids to enhance audience understanding of research data;
- Use posture and movement to engage the audience;
- Use gestures, voice, and eyes to emphasize information and connect with the audience;
- Produce a research presentation; and
- Answer audience questions.

[授業外学修(予習・復習)等]

Students will be asked to work on several smaller in-class talks and one larger presentation as their primary out-of-class homework assignment. This includes recording your own presentations and uploading them to Google Drive.

[その他(オフィスアワー等)]

Students will use Google Drive during presentations, with specific focus on Google Docs and Google Slides. Some computer skills are required, though most in-class work can be performed on a smartphone or a tablet. Familiarity with Google Docs and Slides is not required--only the willingness to learn the basics of these skills.
