[授業の概要・目的]

This is an introductory undergraduate course, providing students a basic narrative of major turning points that shaped modern Europe from the late 18th-century through the present, including the cause and the course of the two world wars.

The purpose of this course is to develop

(a) an understanding of some of the principle themes in modern Western History, and

(b) an ability to analyze historical evidence and historical interpretation, and

(c) an ability to express historical understanding verbally.

[到達目標]

One of the goals of this course is to help students to consider multiple accounts of historical events in order to understand international relations from a variety of perspectives. Besides nurturing their English reading, writing and communication skills, the ultimate goal of this course is to provide a platform for students to discuss history in English.
