Academic writing & listening

[授業の概要・目的]

The goals of this course are to: 1) develop a more advanced level of academic writing, especially in relation to the skills related to writing research essays, 2) develop a more advanced level of academic listening, discussion, and presentation skills, and 3) expand academic vocabulary. Regarding academic writing skills, students will be expected to do the following: a) develop a topic and include specific details from outside sources; b) organize paragraph structures into an essay form; c) research various outside sources for the purpose of supporting ideas and arguments (i.e., quoting, paraphrasing, and summarizing); d) develop multiple drafts of writing; and e) become aware of how to self-edit one’s own writing. Regarding academic listening skills, students will be provided a range of authentic listening activities both in class and out. In addition, students will be expected to engage in class discussion and will learn to present their writing. Regarding academic vocabulary, students will be expected to learn vocabulary using the "Kyoto University Vocabulary Database 1110" outside of class and be assessed in class. Students will also be expected to take responsibility for their own learning by reflecting on their language learning experiences and achievements through self-assessment surveys (the KU Can-Do Statements).

[到達目標]

By the end of this course, students will have acquired the following skills at varying levels. Students will be able to:
- write multi-paragraph essays.
- express ideas in longer paragraphs.
- summarize content from lectures, presentations, and other audio-visual materials.
- select appropriate content through various research methods.
- produce a range of supporting paragraphs using outside sources.
- use a range of rhetorical styles.
- express coherent ideas in cohesive paragraphs.
- edit texts under the guidance of the instructor.
- format written text appropriately using suitable punctuation.
- paraphrase a variety of short texts, often using appropriate synonyms.
- recall and use academic vocabulary.
