[授業の概要・目的]

This class covers topics in modern Japanese history from the post-1945, US-led occupation until the early 21st century. Attention will be paid to the social and environmental consequences of high economic growth, as well as persistent issues related to gender, daily life, and disaster. All the while, the course emphasizes Japan's position within global transformations from the mid-20th century through to the present day.

[到達目標]

Greater appreciation for key themes in modern Japanese history, as well as familiarity with some recent research trends.
